Native to the Mile High City of Denver, Colorado: Christian Artist Sean BE is best known for his Joy filled music, high-energy live performances, and undeniable passion for the calling God placed on his life.

Formerly a "Next Gen" Pastor, Sean and his family took a leap of faith when they moved to NASHVILLE, TN where he's been called to create great Christ-centered music that will continue his mission to inspire hope in the next generation as they find their way toward a future in God. He aims to remind listeners that God has purpose in everything, and show them that, with God in their life, they can be sure, "We did not come this far, just to come this far". Sean's heart is to be a light to the world as we are told in Matthew 5:16
